OCTOBER

In the beginning when God created the heavens and the earth, the earth was a formless void and darkness covered the face of the deep, while a wind from God swept over the face of the water.

- Genesis 1:1-2

TORAH - PENTATECUH

These are the first five books of the Bible: Genesis, Exodus, Leviticus, Numbers, and Deuteronomy. They are sometimes referred to as the books of the Law, but they contain much more than that. These books tell the foundational stories of God's people and are important for both Christians and Jews.

OSL CONFIRMATION FALL SCHEDULE

NOVEMBER

We will not hide them from their children; we will tell to the coming generation the glorious deeds of the LORD and his might, and the wonders that he has done.

- Psalm 78:4

HISTORICAL BOOKS AND PROPHETS

These books cover the history of ancient Israel, from the conquest of the Promised Land through the Babylonian Exile to the return to the land following the edict of Cyrus of Persia. History is told both in narrative form and in the sayings of Israel's prophets.

DECEMBER

The fear of the LORD is the beginning of knowledge; fools despise wisdom and instruction.
- Proverbs 1:7

WISDOM AND POETRY

These books explore the ups and downs of life. They offer practical advice on how to live the good life, how to pray, how to sing God's praises, and how to cry. They ask tough questions like why do bad things happen to good people? And they express the joys of human life.
